

A charming group of pages at the wedding of Miss Violet de Trafford and Capt. Keith Menzies, son of Lady Holforth, in London.
New York Herald Foreign Photo.

Sailors from the U. S. S. Litchfield at the American Consulate in Smyrna doing relief work among the terror stricken natives made homeless as a result of the fire that devastated the city.
International.

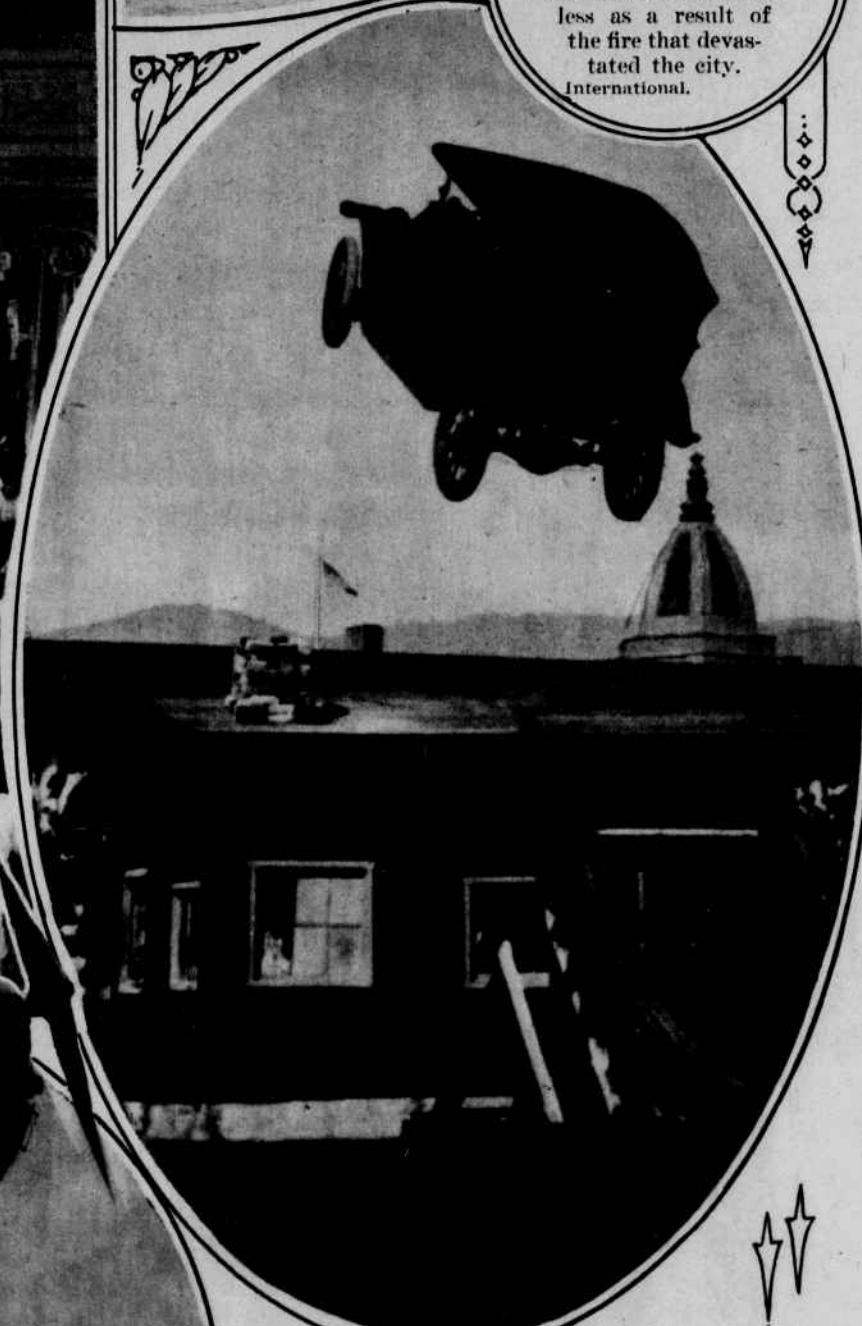

London's new Lord Mayor, E. C. Moore, returning to the Guildhall after divine service at St. Lawrence Jewry.
Wide World.

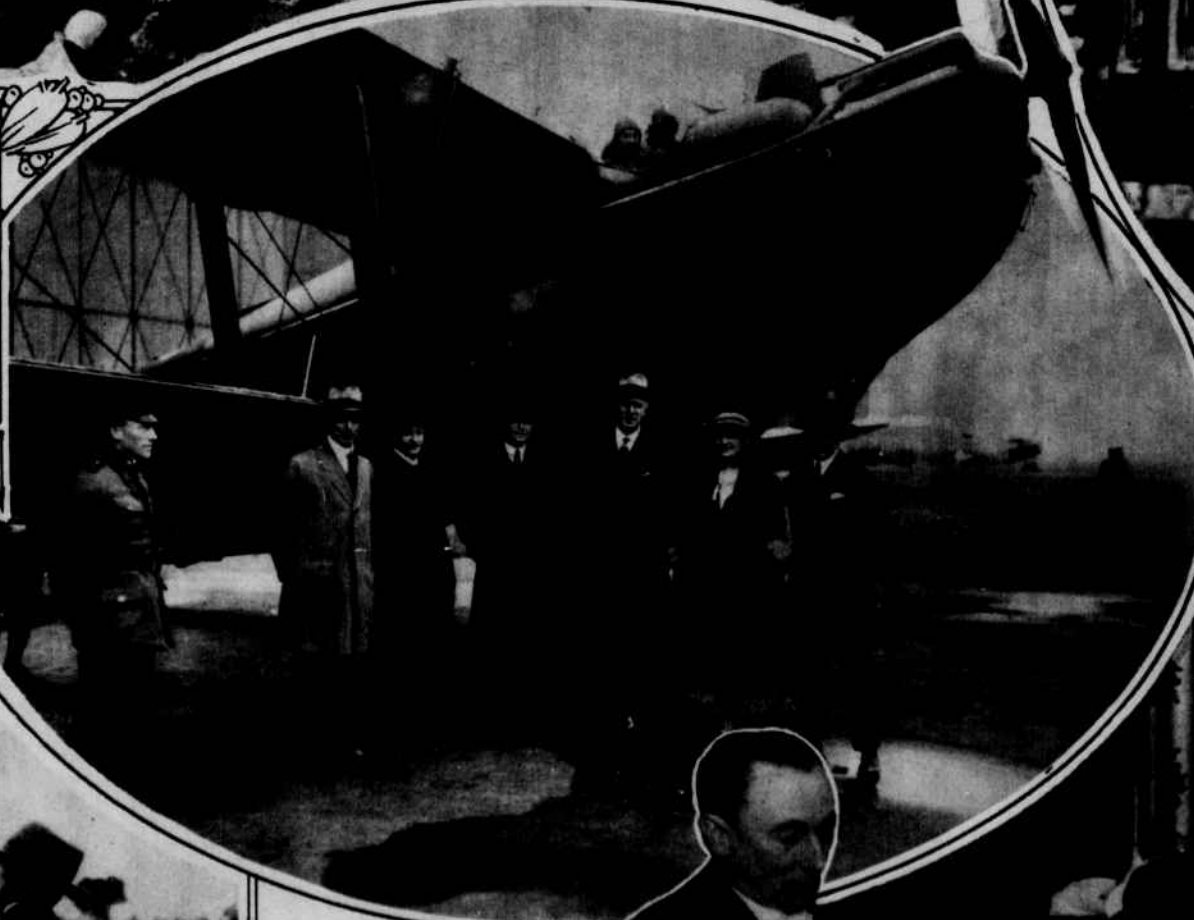

American aid to refugees in Smyrna. Crowds in front of the American Consulate, guarded by Turkish soldiers, pleading for food and shelter.
International.

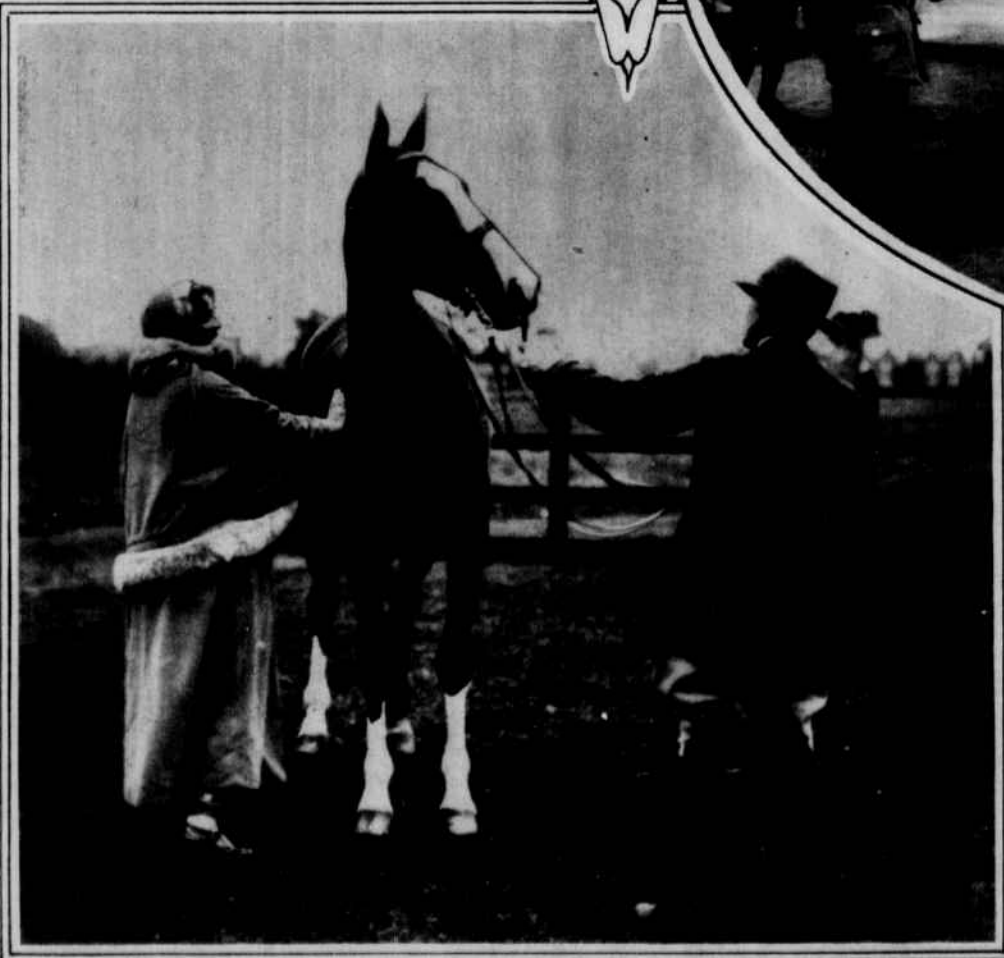

Underwood & Underwood.

Who wants a ride in this new thriller, a touring car which, gathering speed on a runway, takes off from an incline and leaps a house fifteen feet high? A new breath taking stunt at Oakland, Cal.
Underwood & Underwood.

Above — English and German aviation officials at the start of the new air service between London and Berlin.
Kadel & Herbert.

At left—The Maharajah of Cooh Behar at a London horse sale inspecting one of her purchases to be shipped back home. Wide World.

American Ambassador Harvey officially opening the pudding season at "Ye Old Cheshire Cheese," the London tavern made famous by Dr. Samuel Johnson.
New York Herald Foreign Photo.

